JGND PSOU Organises Seven-Day Workshop on Embroidery and Stitching

Jagat Guru Nanak Dev Punjab State Open University (JGND PSOU), Patiala, commenced a seven-day workshop on “Embroidery and Stitching” today to promote vocational skills and self-reliance among participants. The workshop is being organised by the Skill and Employability Cell in collaboration with the Centre for Internal Quality Assurance (CIQA), under the leadership of Prof. (Dr.) Rattan Singh, Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, JGND PSOU, at the University campus on 13 May 2026.

In the presidential address, Prof. (Dr.) Rattan Singh, Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, JGND PSOU, emphasised the University’s mission to empower learners through practical skill development. He expressed that such workshops create a platform for traditional craft and modern employability and are essential for fostering entrepreneurship and providing participants with the tools necessary to achieve economic independence in the modern workforce.

Dr. Amitoj Singh, Associate Dean Academic Affairs, JGND PSOU, delivered the welcome address, highlighting the University’s commitment to blending academic learning with hands-on vocational training. Dr. Balpreet Singh, Chairperson, Skill and Employability Cell, JGND PSOU, shared a detailed overview of the workshop, explaining that the seven-day programme is designed to cover various techniques of embroidery and stitching, providing a comprehensive learning experience for all attendees.

Dr. Sukhpal Kaur, Head, Department of Political Science, JGND PSOU, moderated the session and Dr. Parampreet Kaur, Head, Department of History, JGND PSOU, presented the formal vote of thanks. The workshop aims to provide intensive training to master stitching and embroidery over the next week to enhance the participants’ employability and creative potential.
